“ Uncle David was a kind hearted man. He would help everyone if he could. Over the last year about 10 of us made krepkrokers at Aunt Elaine's house. Lots of laughs and family stories. They turned out Delicious. Last year Uncle David asked me if I would help him trim and place flowers At the grave cites. You will be missed Uncle David

“ Uncle David did such a difficult and thorough job of getting his ancestry done. A couple of the times he drove to Rockford, IL. and I was able to meet up with him and we drove around to get all the ancestry information we could. I think we both enjoyed it. I am grateful for the memories you, Uncle David, were able to create for me. Thank You!
