“ Dear family of David,
My heart goes out to you, I so sorry for your loss of husband, father, brother and grandfather.
My your memories get you through the tough times.
David was my cousin, he was a very thoughtful man. He held a special place in my parents (Paul & Adeline Aulwes) life. They could never say enough good things about him. From how he was such a good provider for his family, was very thoughtful towards others and always had time to spend chit chatting with them. They were very proud of David.
I will keep all of you in my prayers. I will also do a Devine Mercy Chaplet for David.

May the Lord bless you and be with you during your sadness and in the future.

Love your cousin,

Ceil (Vern) Torgeson

“ Ill never forget Christmas time as a child over at Sharon and Daves house with all the cousins. It is a cherished childhood memory along with all the outrageous jokes and stories he told. He was always very kind to me and I am glad I got to see him again as an adult before his passing. You always made me laugh and Im pretty sure let me win in poker a few hands. Until we meet again Uncle Dave.
Love you.
