“ My sincere condolences go to the Bird family for the loss of their dear loved one Maurice. I would like to share a Comforting thought from the bible found at Philippians 4:7 ; And the peace of God that surpasses all understanding will guard your hearts and your mental powers by means of Christ Jesus. ”

“ I knew and worked with, "Birdy" for a short time and he touched my heart like no one ever has before. He showed me what courage and determination truly means. He was a fighter and he kept trying in spite of his physical limitations and the pain he had in his body. He had such a tender heart and a wonderful wit as well. Now you are whole and free in heaven my friend. I will never forget you! Pat

“ Bird Man was always over at our house when I was little, it seems. He and my parents (Mike and Candy) would stay up until all hours of the morning playing Yahtzee, Cribbage, or darts... He was always kind to me and I never saw him in a defeated mood. Rest in paradise, Bird man.

“Dave was the Best man in our wedding. Back in the seventies Dave lived in a trailer home. We were all moving out from home for the first time. One friend was struggling and needed some money. Dave chose to borrow them the money instead of paying his utility bill. He said "the utility company has a lot more money than we do so they can wait a little longer for their payment." He truly was the Best man.
