“ Marvin and family my condolences go out to you all on the passing of David, he definitely was a man you wouldn't forget. I remember sitting outside y'all's house on Oliver back in 1973 and Miss Sara would holler at him to turn that damn music down 😊. They was good times back then something good to remember. Marvin I'm sorry I couldn't attend as I had major surgery on my legs and just got home from the hospital cuz you know I would of been there. Mack sent me David's picture from his remembrance card, Yep that was DC sharp as a tack. To his children and grandchildren keep his memories close as they will comfort you. God Bless you all.
