“ Dear Ones, Oh how you your hearts are heavy. He will wipe away every tear from their eyes, and death shall be no more, neither shall there be mourning nor crying nor pain any more, for the former things have passed on. -Revelation 21:4 May you be comforted by Him with the tender memories of your beloved, life will never be the same but oh so great that he was in it. Please accept my sincerest condolences and know that I will be lifting up prayers for all of you so that God's peace will be with you. Sending much Love to you all,
Cousin Janet

“ Sending prayers, love and hugs to everyone during this difficult time. I will never forget how friendly Dave was welcoming me into his family. A memory I will never forget is the first Christmas I attended with his grandson Chris. Dave made me feel so welcome and joked to Chris asking him how he got such a beautiful lady. He always seemed to have such great humor. I am so thankful I was able to meet him. He will be missed by many. We have one of the best angels watching over us. RIP Big D ❤️

“ Thoughts and prayers for all of Dave's family and friends, there was not a better man around. Always able to make you smile or laugh, the world is a lonelier place without him - my hope is that Heaven is a brighter place today. Cousin Dave made the trip out to our wedding this last April which was no easy task, but that was the man he was. Dave, you will be truly missed.

“ Sending prayers, love and hugs to everyone during this difficult time. I had the privilege of knowing Dave for only a few short years but in those years and through stories I got to see what an amazing man he was. A memory I will never forget was the first Christmas I attended with his grandson Chris. Dave was so welcoming and joked around asking how Chris was able to get such a good looking lady. He was filled with so much humor and such a kind heart. He made me feel welcome into the Clemens family. He will be greatly missed by so many. We have one of the best angels watching over us. ❤️
