“ I am sorry for Dave's passing. I can't think of one single event I had with Dave. But I can remember what a wonderful caring man that he was. I always felt special when ever we saw each other. He truly cared about everyone. Especially his daughters and grand children. But most important you could tell that Barb was the love of his life. They truly are soul mates and I know how much you will all miss him. He was a big presence in our lives. Again Barb and family I am so saddened by his passing. Your family will always be behind you especially in these coming days. We love you with all our hearts. And I know this is bittersweet but I hope your birthday will be peaceful. Love you. Janet
