

David Devore

November 15, 2010

Devore, David Andrew Age 61, of Bloomington, passed away on Friday, November 12, 2010 after a long and courageous battle with cancer. He was a wonderful husband, father, and grandfather who was devoted to his family. He will be deeply missed by his wife, Bonnie, sons, Mark (Julie), Michael (Sarrie), daughter, Amy and granddaughter, Kate. He is also survived by his mother, Doris and his brother, Clyde. Preceded in death by father, John. He was a graduate of Michigan State University, received his business degree from the University of Minnesota and became a CPA. He worked as a controller/executive officer in the moving business for many years and then continued his career as a supply chain manager at Buddy's Kitchen. Throughout his years, he was involved in his church, Rotary, and Chamber of Commerce as a leader and an active contributor. He also loved sports and was involved in his children's sports activities as a coach and volunteer. A Memorial service will be held on Wednesday, November 17, 2010, at St. Luke's Lutheran Church, 1701 West Old Shakopee Road, Bloomington, MN, at 11:00 A.M. Visitation will be 1 hour prior to service. A special thank you is given to his oncologist, Dr. Stuart Bloom, and MOHPA staff, for their compassionate and excellent care. In lieu of flowers, memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society. Washburn-McReavy Dawn Valley Chapel 952-941-7686
