

David Joseph Fischer

November 22, 1944 - May 27, 2024

Fischer, David Joseph, age 79, of Arden Hills, MN, passed away at home on May 27, 2024.

He was born on November 22, 1944, in Bismarck, ND to Joseph and Amelia Fischer. After graduating from North Dakota State University with a degree in Electrical Engineering, he and his wife, Jeanette, moved to the Twin Cities where he enjoyed a successful career at several local medical device companies, retiring from 3M in 2003.

Dave was a caring and giving husband, father, grandfather, and friend. His focus was always on making sure those around him were happy and taken care of. Dave loved the outdoors and shared a passion for hunting, fishing and storytelling with his brothers. Dave was committed to an active lifestyle and over the course of his life, ran several marathons and was an active member of a health club.

He will be remembered for his generosity, humor, and his love of family.

Dave is survived by his wife, Jeanette; children, Paul (Laurie) of Wayzata, MN, Amy (John) of Maple Grove, MN, Lori (Matt) of Maple Grove, MN; grandchildren: Grace, Mollie, and Jack. He is also survived his brothers, Floyd (Barb) Fischer of Bismarck, ND, and Tim (Bonnie) Fischer of Bismarck ND.

A private interment ceremony will be held at Roselawn Cemetery.
