“ Our thoughts and prayers are with you all today with the loss of your son, husband, father, grandfather and brother.

Tonight we are sharing the memories of our dinner that Brenda arranged to have David and their family prepare for us as Brenda's thanks for our hard work.....cooking and delivering the dinner on 3rd shift was more work for them than us and they deserved the "thank you"! The dinner was delicious and we were also lucky to have had multiple opportunities to enjoy spontaneous entrees Brenda would bring in to share with Mail and Print staff. Janet and the 3rd shift Print team

We really liked the ribs and black bean sauce! Paul

David was my neighbor in Woodbury. He was a kind, gentle, and well-spoken man as long as I knew him, even with his illness weighing upon him. I only wish I had known him better. I do hope that I am held in as high esteem as David by family , friends, and neighbors when my time comes. He was a very fine man.
