St. Louis Park, Minnesota

October 31, 2025

David J. Fredenburg, 84, of St. Louis Park, Minnesota, passed away peacefully on Friday, October 31, 2025, surrounded by his loving family and friends.

David was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, great-grandfather, and friend. He was preceded in death by his parents, Clarence and Catherine, his 9 siblings, Kay, Dorothy, Jack, Jim, Betty, Gene, Joan, Patty, Colleen and his beloved wife, Gloria, with whom he shared a lifetime of love, laughter, and cherished memories.

A proud veteran, David served in the United States Marine Corps where he developed the discipline, loyalty, and strength that he carried with him throughout his life.

For over 62 years, David made his home in St. Louis Park, where he worked for the school district as a boiler engineer while he and Gloria raised their family and built countless lasting friendships. He enjoyed tinkering in the garage, playing golf with his friends, and spending time with his wife and family - the people who meant the most to him.

He is survived by his three sons, Troy (Leah) Fredenburg, Joel (Donnita) Fredenburg, and Ross Fredenburg (Cindy Irrgang); Five grandchildren, Kendra and (Jason) Bisping, Kyrrah and (Austin) Albers, Trenton and (Emma) Fredenburg, and Blake and Brandon Fredenburg; one great-grandson, Banks David Bisping, and many nieces, nephews and cousins who brought him tremendous joy and pride.

David's life was defined by his unwavering love for his family, his steady presence, and his kind and generous heart. He will be deeply missed and forever remembered by all who were fortunate enough to know him.

Uncle David was always so kind and helpful, laughed so easily and was an active listener. I already miss our 2hr monthly calls where at first he'd laugh about his sister's, my mom, antics. Love you, Keven Dronen
