“ Dave was truly a person who loved life to it's fullest. Just visited with him last week about his soon to be born grand son, so proud he was. Equally proud of his son graduating from Dave's Alma Mater, the U of M. He could make others laugh at his expense to the point of crying and beyond. So many great stories to remember him at his best, especially sitting on the porch of Ground Zero with Sam and enjoying the sun shining on us all. Always welcoming, willing to listen to your story and tell his that may or may not relate, but none the less this was Dave as all who knew this great person without equal. We will miss him dearly.

Rest in Peace
