

David Joseph Kaune

October 12, 1944 - July 30, 2018

David J. Kaune, age 73, of Bloomington, passed away suddenly in The Estates at Bloomington care facility on Monday July 30th, 2018.

David was born in Blooming Prairie, the son of Fred and Elizabeth (Wencil) Kaune. David is survived by his daughter, Esther (Jim) Luedtke; brother John (Carol) Kaune; nieces Michelle Kaune, Robin (Todd) Dalby, Jessica Kaune; nephew Anthony (Jennifer) Kaune and many other relatives and friends.

David served 20 years in the Air Force, mostly stationed in England, retired and returned to Minnesota. David had a strong interest in animals and animal welfare; supported charities and visited many zoos and sanctuaries in America and England. He also enjoyed studying history and toured many historical locations in America and England.

Upon David's request, there will be no memorial service, but rather a celebration of his life at a future family gathering; where they can share memories and scatter of some of his ashes at the farm where he grew up. David requested that memorial gifts be donations sent to the Animal Humane Society or the Disabled American Veterans (DAV). Private family inurnment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery.

“ So sorry to receive this bad news. My condolences to John and the entire Kaune family. I have known David my entire life as we were classmates', grades 1 – 12. Our family farm bordered the Fred Kaune farm and David was a good friend in younger years and during High School. He will be missed by his family and friends. RIP Dave.

“ My sincere sympathy to David's family. I am sorry for your loss. David and I grew up on a farm less than a mile from us and we attended the same country school (#85) and Dodge Center High School.....all good memories!
