“ i have so many memories from my 50 plus years of knowing you. You were in and out of my life and in the last few years came into it once again . Missing our text conversations so much and our silly jokes and memes. i was trying to find pictures of you from the past, but was only able to locate one so far, and felt comforted keeping it on my bedside table. if i were to sum you up, i would call you a very even tempered, calm and gentle-man, and always ready with that wonderful smile (and laugh). i re-read over our texts the other night, and although we had talked about going dancing, walking, etc. we never quite made it to the point of actually meeting up except for that first New Years. I was hoping once you moved to Eden Prairie, we could get together easier. The fates stepped in. i am missing you. RIP in peace, my gentle friend.
