

David Foster MacMillan

April 22, 1945 - January 10, 2025

David Foster MacMillan was born in Minneapolis on April 22, 1945 (as he pointed out frequently, he was NOT a baby boomer). He died unexpectedly on January 10, 2025. He was preceded in death by his parents. David is survived by numerous relatives and friends, including his siblings and their spouses; and many nieces and nephews. He is also survived by his first wife, Susan MacMillan; daughter, Jessica and her partner Don Dvorak; and the love of his life, his wife, Judy Krow, who loved him dearly and will miss him forever. In lieu of flowers memorials preferred to the Minnesota Opera, The St. Paul Chamber Orchestra, or Avenues for Youth. A celebration of life will be held on Saturday, January 25th, from 2:30 to 5:30pm at Midland Hills Country Club, 2001 Fulham Street, Roseville. Private interment at Fort Snelling National Cemetery.
