

David Glenn Madson

December 25, 1952 - September 21, 2019

Madson, David Glenn 66, of Edina passed away unexpectedly on Saturday, September 21, 2019. He is tremendously loved and will be deeply missed. Born in Minneapolis, Dave was a talented musician who loved playing jazz, rock and anything in between on bass, bassoon and other woodwinds in the Twin Cities music scene and everywhere he lived. His lifelong passion for Nordic skiing and biathlon brought him to Olympic trials, many Birkies and Norway, his home away from home. He lived there with his wife Terry, where he trained for biathlon, studied and worked. Dave earned both Biology and Architecture degrees at the U of M. He loved his work in architecture, practicing most recently in Winnipeg. He is survived by his loving wife of 33 years Terry Parker Madson, who he met in Cable, WI and married in Oslo, Norway. He is also survived by his daughter Bente (Patrick), his four brothers, Brian (Deborah), Paul, Tom (Barbara) and John (Nancy), sister Tracy Williams (Mark), his mother-in-law Esther and many loving family members and friends. His father John passed heartbroken two days after Dave. A service celebrating his life will be held on Monday, Sept. 30th, at 2 p.m. at the Norwegian Lutheran Memorial Church in Minneapolis. Memorials preferred to the church. Interment will be in Cable, WI.

Cemetery Details

Hillside Crematory

2610 19th Ave NE
Minneapolis, MN 55418