

David Post

May 27, 2008

Post, David A. Age 61, of Bloomington, beloved gift of God's love, passed away peacefully Saturday, May 24, 2008, surrounded by family and friends. David proudly worked at Opportunity Partners for more than 25 years. He was a gentle, caring soul who brought joy to all who knew him. He called himself a "drummer boy," and loved playing his snare drum to brass band music. Preceded in death by parents, Vernon and Esther; sister-in-law, Katie Post; niece, Cathy Post. Survived by siblings, Vernon Jr. (Dorothy), Esther Post, Marjorie (William) Carter, and Donald (Linda); nieces and nephews, Vernon Robert (Peggy) and children Andy and Laura, Doug (Kim), Ashley (Dana) and daughter Mackenzie, Bruce (Susan) and daughter Tori, Nicole (Greg) and children Ella and Ben. Private memorial gathering will be held at Grace House in Bloomington. Private interment at Kensico Cemetery in Valhalla, NY. Special thanks and deep gratitude to the staff of Grace House for their loving care. Memorials preferred in lieu of flowers to Lutheran Social Service. Washburn-McReavy Edina Chapel 952-920-3996

“David, we will never forget your gentle soul, loving spirit, meticulous scrapebooks, and perfect timing on drums. You brought joy into every room you entered. Your life was full. We send you off to heaven and your parents with this brief prayer from the Episcopal Book of Common Prayer: May angels surround you and saints welcome you in peace.

“ We remember David as being a gentle, kind and loving person. He always had a smile or a laugh for us and enjoyed sharing stories of playing his drums. His accomplishments were quite remarkable. He was a very special man who gave freely of his love and fully enjoyed and appreciated all of the love he received from others.

“ Today we gather to celebrate the life of David Post. Reflection will come in thought, prayer, music, and memories. It is in the memories, that we will continue to live life recalling the joyful times we shared together. I feel truly blessed to have met and known David. I know by the gifts he has shared with me, I've become a better person. Thank you David. My thoughts and prayers are with the family during this difficult time of loss.

“ We will miss David dearly. With his sense of humor, his musical gifts, and his generous affection, he was always good company. Getting to know him and observing all that his family, especially his sister Marge and his brother-in-law Bill, brought to his life enlarged our hearts.

“ The lives of our family were enriched and strengthened through knowing and loving David. All members of our family are grateful for David's influence, love and strength that went far beyond what we could ask or think. We learned so much from him about how to live-- a wonderful reflection of our parents. We are better because of him.
