“ My sisters and I were blessed a thousand times over to have Uncle Dave in our lives. When we were little, he was the tickle monster, the sweet man who patiently answered our millions of questions, and the guy who let us eat enormous amounts of popcorn. As we grew older, he and Aunt Mary were shining examples of a loving, devoted, strong Christian couple. Truly a match made in heaven! Uncle Dave will live forever in our hearts, his infectious smile and laugh (even his bad jokes). He will be so missed, but it is such comfort to know he is resting in his Savior's arms. In loving remembrance, Barb & Cindi (and Sandie in heaven).
