“ Dave was such an important part of our lives. Just one of the best that we knew. Kind, bright, loving. A wonderful brother to many of us. A caring and wise husband and father to others. "Funny dad Dave."

“ Judy and family we are so sorry for your loss, David was a great man, father, grand father, and a great life long friend. We all had many great and wonderful times together and many great memories. Please know you are in our prayers and wish we could be there during this difficult time. Know he is with the Lord watching over us and his suffering with health issues is over and he is now at peace. We will continue to pray for you and David and someday may we all be together again in Paradise. Our love to you and your wonderful family

“ I loved David like a younger Brother. David lead the Catholic Service at Johanna Shores on the second Thursday for many years. Judy accompanied him after his kidney transplant. He is surely in a very high place in Heaven. God rest his Soul.
