

David Walter Stickle

April 18, 1933 - October 15, 2021

Dr. David W. Stickle, age 88 of Edina passed away on 10/15/2021.

Preceded in death by his parents, Harold and Lucille; and his sister, Mrs. Carol Colbeth.

Dave was a long-time resident of Edina who had a BS in Chemistry, Biology, Tufts U., 1955, MS in Pharmacy and Health, Northeastern U., Boston, 1968; MPH, U.N.C., 1969, DrPH, 1971. Bacteriologist Mass. Dept. Pub Health, Boston, 1959-63, supr. immunology unit, 1963-68; UNC/CDC lab. dir's program Ctrs. for Disease Control, Atlanta, 1968-71; chief, clin. lab improvement program Divsn. Med. Labs. / Minn. Dept. Health, Mpls., 1971-82, acting dir., 1977-78, asst dir., 1978-88; ex-officio mem. Minn. So. Clin. Pathologists Exec. Com., Mpls., 1977-78; assoc. prof. emeritus, U. Minn., 1988-. Editor: Med. Lab. Forum Periodical , 1973-88. Proctor Nat. Registry of Microbiology, Mpls. Examinations for Minn., 1987-92; instr. Edina Community Edn. Programs, Minn., 1992. Served in the US Army at Eilson Air Force Base in Fairbanks, AK., 1955-57. Lab. tng. grantee Ctr. for Disease Control, HEW, Atlanta, 1977-78, 1978-80, 1979-81. Mem. Am. Soc. Microbiology, Phi Sigma, Sigma Xi. Achievements include serologic tests for systemic candidiasis which were in use for many years by the Ctrs. for Disease Control, U.S. Dept. of Health and Human Svcs. Dave is survived by his wife, Mary; sister, Mrs. Margaret (Kenneth) Williams; brother-in-law, Edward; and his nieces and nephews. Memorials preferred to a charity that will help find a cure for dementia. Interment Fort Snelling National Cemetery.