“ David was a dear friend and one of the kindest souls we've ever known. He shared his love of music and art with us for many years accompanying classes in New Brunswick and Princeton, through rain, sleet and snow - walking long distances to get to classes and always with the most pleasant and gracious demeanor. Loved watching his cleaver artistry in Purple Rose of Cairo - just a bit part but so perfect for that moment, it's easy to see why W. Allen chose him. David, we often think of you and cherish your memory - your loving friends - Douglas Martin and Mary Barton

“ Many fond memories of his work in the productions at Judson Poets Theater and other musicals off Broadway in the 1960s-80s. We were all friends of Al Carmines. Gratitude for the joy he shared with us. Ralph Moore, Rockland, Maine
