“ I met Dave 15 years ago working on a project together. Since that time over multiple projects, he became much more than a trusted vendor, he was a golfing and fishing buddy. I'm going to miss his humor. My deepest condolences to his family.

I worked for David from 2008 till 2012. He was the ultimate professional, a true gentleman, a sincere compassionate human being, and my friend. I will miss him and I will have good memories of the time I was privileged to spend with him. My hopes and prayers go out to his family and friends that they may find comfort for their loss.
