“ So sorry to learn of Davids passing. He was my friend and golfing buddy. The last time I saw David in Charlotte, NC I learned of his problem. Still I was surprised and saddened when I learned he had passed. When I was laid up with hip surgery David would come to my home and take me for long drives. He was a unique individual whom I will miss so much. Barb, you are in my thoughts. I wish I could be there for you in this difficult time.

“ To Barb & The Weinstock family,

I was very sorry when i heard the news of David's passing. I will always remember David for his incredible passion for home delivery milk service, and more importantly, for his commitment to his distributors, many who became life-long friends.

In all my dealings with David, he was consistently fair, honest and cared about others. You have my deepest sympathies at this time.
