“ I was very saddened to become aware of my cousin Dawn's death a week after her funeral. I know it is difficult for family to make all these calls to remote family when this happens. I will cherish the times i had together with my Aunt Mary, Dawn, Virginia, and Beverly..

“ I am sorry and thinking of all of you with the loss of your Mema. What a wonderful way to honor and celebrate her life by planting trees.

“ I had the honor of giving cares to Dawn. Dawn was such a open hearted lady full of love! Every second with her was the best and will always be cherished by me. She always made sure I took a piece of candy on my way out her room even if i had just been there 5 minutes prior. May she rest in peace! She will be missed dearly.
