“ So very sorry for the Turnberg family loss. I memorably met Dean while bar tending at the Blackhawk many years ago when he came in with his sons Gary and Gerry (the latter being underage as I recall) and we immediately connected. Wonderful man from a wonderful family.

“ Uncle Dean was dedicated, devoted and determined to do the best for his wonderful family. We have many, magical, memories of this sweet and special man. His courage, kindness, and caring was unsurpassed. We loved watching Marilyn and him together. True examples of loyalty and love. We will miss his earthly presence, but we will hold him in our heart always. Uncle Dean had great faith, and family came first always. He leaves an everlasting legacy of love.
