“ *RIP my dear friend Deano... Life without you will be very sad. I sure will miss those times I called you and you would answer angrily, "I can't talk now call me back later". I know you are in a much better place away from pain and suffering.
Untill we meet again!!!*

It will be a very sad place without Deano. He will be missed greatly! We have known deano for many years. we carved pumkins together and we went to sturgis together. We were known as the turn around boys!

We also used to go carping every spring. I will miss my friend.
