“ A Minnesota snow storm. In our years on Nevada Avenue N, a trip would have been an adventure. Now some 40 plus years later this snow storm became an impossible journey. We wished to be there. We wished to remember those years of 1971 thru 1977 when we were next door neighbors. When Deb was one of our baby sitters. When Hank was going to college. When Tim was becoming a chef. When your happy parents so enjoyed all of you. Chance allowed us to meet. Years of Christmas cards allowed us to stay in touch. Yet, today that does not seem to help my sorrow. I cannot think what Deb has lived thru, because I do not know what has taken her away at such a young age. So I can only hope that love, warmth, good memories, happy thoughts and times and the feelings that come from N Minnesota will be there with you. We are thankful for life - especially the life of Deb. She was very special to all of us and to you big brothers, we know she will be missed. Randy and Janet Beinhorn
