

Debbie Slutsker

December 17, 2015

Slutsker, Debbie age 61 of Plymouth, passed away peacefully surrounded by her family on December 17, 2015. Preceded in death by her mother, Ruth Hirschberg. Survived by loving and devoted husband, Ilya; daughter, Mandy; son, Ben (Jenna); sisters, Bunny and Aimee; and father, Joe (Harriet). Debbie was a dedicated wife, mother, daughter and sister, who celebrated a life of Tikkun Olam (repairing the world) through her many years as a social worker at Shriners Hospital for Children - Twin Cities and many volunteer causes for people with disabilities and special needs. She was greatly influenced by her grandmother, Bubbie Weiner, who provided guidance and spiritual inspiration. Judaism played a central role in Debbie's life; she served as President of the Minneapolis chapter of Hadassah and attended the Hadassah 100th Anniversary Convention in Jerusalem in 2012. During her visit to Israel with Ilya, they were able to visit Hadassah Medical Center Sarah Wetsman Davidson Hospital Tower, a hospital in Jerusalem Debbie was passionate about. In addition to the many friends in Minneapolis, Debbie developed new friendships over the last five years she spent winters in Naples, Florida - a place that she holds special in her heart. Funeral service 11:00 AM Sunday, December 20 at Adath Jeshurun Congregation, 10500 Hillside Lane West, Minnetonka. Shiva at the family home Sunday, Monday and Tuesday. In lieu of flowers, donations can be made to Hadassah Hospital - Sarah Wetsman Davison Hospital Tower or Shriners Hospital for Children Twin Cities. “ I had the privilege of working with Debbie at Shriners. She was a beautiful person devoted to faith, family, and those in need. She was a gentle, but strong presence with a wry sense of humor. My prayers are with her family at this time. The challenge now is to continue the good works she has started.
