

Deborah Grace Awde

July 21, 2015

Awde, Deborah Grace age 63, of Plymouth, passed away suddenly on July 21, 2015. Debby loved spending time with her family, getting lost in her favorite mystery novels and bringing her therapy dogs to visit with hospital patients. She taught us all compassion and patience. She will be remembered for her big heart and independent spirit. She worked for three decades as a salesperson at prestigious companies in the Minneapolis area, including Ecolab, Control Data Corp. and Countrywide. Debby is survived by her loving husband of 23 years, Robert Awde, and their three children Sam (Sarah) Fellman of Washington, D.C.; Kelley (Shane) Hartman of Fridley, Minn.; and Matt Awde of Richfield, Minn. She is also survived by her mother, Jane Runyan of Las Cruces, N.M., and step-father Hank Runyan. A funeral service will be held 2 p.m. Sunday, July 26 at Plymouth Congregational Church, 1900 Nicollet Ave, with a visitation 1 hour prior to service. The family asks in lieu of flowers to please make donations to the National Alliance on Mental Illness in Debby's memory. Washburn-McReavy.com Strobeck Johnson 952-938-9020
