

Deborah Scarlet Dettlaff

June 16, 1963 - October 14, 2022

June 16th 1963 - October 14th 2022 Deborah Scarlet Dettlaff (Bohmer) of Bloomington, MN passed suddenly on Friday evening at 59 years old. There was snow, rain, sunshine and even a rainbow on the day she left us. Deborah was born in Karlsruhe, Germany, the only child of Brigitte (Henne) and Manfred Bohmer. Deborah grew up in Germany as well as New Jersey, but has been a Bloomington resident for more than 40 years. Best known as Debbie or Deb with her family and friends. Deb made an impact on anyone she met and they knew she danced to the beat of her own drum. She was a truly thoughtful and generous soul. She always gave the best hugs, was the best key gift giver and greeting card writer. Debbie loved yellow flowers, especially sunflowers. She also loved music, coloring, shopping, movies and boogying on any dance floor. Deborah leaves behind her adoring "Mr. Man" Chris Taylor. Her mother Brigitte Henne and father Manfred (step mother Barbara) Bohmer. Her two grown daughters Tabetha Dettlaff and Lilleah Bruce (Dettlaff), son in law Corey Bruce, Former husband & father of her two girls; Greg Dettlaff, cousins Nadine, Rebecca, and Christina, Aunt and Uncle; Heidi and Acheim, extended family and countless friends. As much as she longed for grandchildren badly, she never got any of her own but she did have her beloved grand dog Ralphie and her grand cat Nala. We will miss you forever Mama. Celebration of life will be at St. Edwards Catholic Church Bloomington MN, Wednesday November 9th 2022 @10am with visitation @ 9am. Any memorials please contact Washburn-McReavy Bloomington (952)884-8145.
