“ I only just found out about Debra’s untimely and tragic death. I did not know Debra very well but I know this...she was a beautiful soul and I could sense that immediately. I am in shock about her loss. I hope she is at peace and knows how much she was loved. God bless your immortal soul and peace to your family, Deb. Farewell...Ed

“ I met Deb 20 years ago in Colorado. We travelled all around the states as fans of Mary Chapin Carpenter. I deeply miss our weekly conversations about politics, movies, and music. She was a wonderful, caring person and a great listener. I miss her every day. Kari in Michigan

“ Deb was a great soul. I knew her from working downtown and having wine sometimes. We both loved cats and she loved the cat called Maru. Will miss getting a chance to go to the cat cafe that opened in Uptown. I hope you are looking down Deb on your friends and family and know how much you impacted all of our lives. Be well Deb.

“ Please accept my condolences. Deb and I became friends about 6 years ago, after working together and bonding over a love for food, music, and travel. Her passions were beyond anyone I’ve ever met. She amazed me with her independence and free spirit. I am fortunate to have known her.

“ Very sorry to hear about Deb. I met her about 15 years back -- she loved Minneapolis, live music and it was always great to hear about the next live music she was planning on catching. She was a great person - kind and thoughtful - she will be missed.

“ Please accept my condolences. I very much enjoyed knowing Deb and talking with her at so many concerts in Minneapolis. If it was a must-see show, she was always there! Her enthusiasm for local arts and culture was infectious, and she was always a joy to be around. She was a lovely person and she will be missed.
