

Delmar Mathias Boehm

March 26, 2015

Boehm, Delmar Mathias Beloved father, grandfather, husband and brother, age 75, died peacefully surrounded by his family after a 3 mo. illness. Born Feb. 28, 1940 in Mandan, ND, to Matt and Mary Boehm, he lived most his life in Minnetonka, MN. Del married Mertis (Baillie), his neighborhood sweetheart, on Jan. 13, 1967. She was his soul mate for 43 years and preceded him in death. He was blessed with a second loving marriage on August 17, 2013 to his cherished companion Mary (Brinkmeyer). After his time in the Army Reserve, Del received his MS in Economics from UND Grand Forks and was a dedicated Tax Accountant at GE Capital. He enjoyed watching birds and wildlife at Windsor Lake in his backyard, reading newspapers, completing crossword puzzles, and caring for plants and gardens. Del was devoted to his family and was kind and generous to the end. He was a long time member of St. David's and was sustained by the church and wisdom of the Psalms. Del was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters, and wife Mertis. Del is survived by his daughter, Christina Boehm Carlson (Bruce); his wife, Mary; his stepdaughter, Jennifer Sexauer (Chad); grandchildren, Theo and Kate; and step-grandchildren, Brynn and Cade. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials to St. David's. Memorial service at 11 AM, Sat., April 11, visitation one hour prior, at St. David's Episcopal Church, 13000 St. David Road, Minnetonka, MN. “ When I think back of all the kids I went to school with Delmar's name would pop in my mind. I had heard he was in Minnesota.

I went to school with Delmar at St. Joseph's Grade School in Mandan. He was a good friend of mine.

My sympathy goes out to his family.
