“Del was the most loving, caring, sharing, giving, fun, sister-in-law anyone could ever hope for. She was always blessing someone in some way. We have many, many wonderful memories of trips and vacations together ... and special times of just talking and sharing life's "happenings." She certainly was a great example of God's love. I know our son, Rodger, and his Auntie Del -- along with Darla -- are enjoying heaven together. Del will always be in our hearts and in our memories. We loved this fantastic, wonderful lady so very, very much.

“ Del was one of the kindest people I ever met. When I started a new job a few years ago, she knew people that worked there and brought them cookies. She asked them to be sure they called me to share in the treats. She did that so that I would be able to make connections at my new job. I was so touched! But that was Del. Del was always thinking of others by being thoughtful whether through words or gestures. Del dealt with many hardships in her life yet she leaned on her faith and had an enormous zest for life. She inspired me personally because I had hit low points in my life, however nothing near what she dealt with and because of her; she gave me strength which helped me become a stronger person. I am glad I was able to see her before she passed. Even though she wasn't doing well, when I said I was there with my friend and my daughter, she opened her eyes and smiled. Del always lit up a room when she walked in one – you couldn't help but smile. That is how I will remember her – that contagious smile on her face and her warm, loving personality. Rest in peace Del, you will be missed by many.
