“Dennis was a mentor to me when I first came to Minneapolis Community and Technical Collegw. In fact, I got my first teaching job there as a replacement for Dennis who was on sabbatical for the year. He returned from his sabbatical and I was able to retain a part-time position. The years with Dennis in the department were fond memories. Dennis was a kind and humorous man. He always wanted to tell a joke and randomly at times would start singing a tune. Dennis was a happy man and that happiness was infectious. RIP, Dennis, your spirit will shine on! Thankful to know you, Lynn L. Coffey
