Dennis was truly a gentle giant, well respected by all of us at RMS and by all his customers. Our thoughts our with you.

“ Denny came into my life more than 25 years ago through fly-fishing. He was patient and kind when I asked him "stupid" questions about bamboo rods and rod building. He was often a table-mate at Lew Jewett meetings and was a quiet but polite voice for stream improvement. I still remember him politely cajoling the club members to join him in a clean-up of the Credit River. I can only assume he is casting a classic bamboo rod to rising trout in Heaven.
