“ Dennis and I were good friends in the 1970's and early eighties. As often happens, our lives took different paths and we drifted apart. My memories of Dennis are of a lot of laughing, straight talk, knowing we had each others back, and marveling at Janet's ability to put up with us. Janet, you are truly one of the best human beings I have ever met. There is a place called Pantoll, on Mt. Tamalpais across the Golden Gate bridge from San Francisco that for reasons too lengthy to go into was a place of bonding that cemented my friendship with Dennis. As I write this I am once again in San Francisco and I would like Janet and his daughters to know I spent a night camping at Pantoll in memorial to Dennis and a friendship that change my life. Dennis was a good man, a good friend, and even though I have not seen him in years, I miss him. I hope you are well Janet.

“ I did not have the privilege to know Mr. Rose, but I do know his daughter, Alecia. Alecia is one of the kindest and most genuine people I know. It takes extraordinary parents to raise a daughter like that so I know Mr. Rose was a special person. I know he will be sorely missed by those who were fortunate enough to know him directly. My prayers are with his family, especially Alecia and her Mom (the other half of that extraordinary parenting), as they go through this difficult time.

“ Those of us who knew him at Perkins, send our condolences to his family. We would start his day with a black cup of coffee, a large glass of ice, a section of the newspaper, and breakfast in a little while. We will miss his presence, and the sound of his Harley heading out...

“ Jan and Family, I am so sorry for your loss. I just recently got to know Dennis. I ran into him frequently at the Perkins for breakfast. We talked about many things including motorcycles, politics and his family that he loved. We had talked about going for a motorcycle ride, just hadn't gotten around to it. I wish we had taken that ride. My thoughts and prayers are with you and your family.

“ Sorry for everybody loss, Denny is one of my best friend if you ever needed someone he was always there for you all you had to do as ask. He always was in great spirits, laughing all the time. I know he love his family more than anything. He would all ways bring plants that he was dividing over to my house as I have an five acres. He was a great gardener as you can tell if you ever been in his back yard. I met Denny at Gabbys in 1986 as we shot pool and became good friends. Rest in peace my friend.

“ Remembering my brother. Throwing up bottle caps so he could shoot them with a 22 cal. rifle (9 out of 10 aint bad). Building snow forts & tunnels. Endless hours of building & playing straw/hay bale forts in the haymownd. Trying to catch & ride Lady our horse. Countless hours of playing cowboys & indians / army in the grove behind the tractor shed. Building our own play house in the grove behind the tractor shed. Sledding down Wheeler's hill. Throwing Billy the dog in the creek. (the dog loved it) Sharing a 1958 BSA 650 motorcycle. And fighting over who was going to ride it. Buying a baby blue 1959 Plymouth Fury with a 361 ci Police Interceptor engine & winning many illegal drag races... & argueing over who was to drive it. Keeping it quiet in town & letting it rip going out of town. Many hours of goofing off durring chores on the farm & trying to get out of them. His fantasric back yard garden... You can take the Boy out of the Farm but not the Farm out of the Boy!!! Just to mention only a few things. Brother Jim
