“ Dear Family of Mr. Dewey R. Winston Sr.,
I am so sorry for the loss of your dear Dad. My name is Jeanne Auron and my father, John Gantert new Dewey when they were teen agers.

I have a story to share of your Dad when he was 16 or 17 yrs old in South Minneapolis. My Dad, 85 yrs, grew up on 31st and Lake Street. He often told this story to our family as we were growing up. My father was 15 or so and he was out walking the neighborhood. My father was a short, tubby kid. A group of kids started to bully my father and your father stepped in and saved him from a beating. He never forgot what your Dad did for him. Your Dad taught my Dad how to be a better person. That act of kindness carried Dad through his life. He was always so grateful for what your father did.

It was pure luck that we saw your father's obituary just a few weeks ago. I am terribly sorry. My father has dementia now, but a childhood buddy of his saw your father's obituary and knew Dad would want to know. I am so grateful that I am able to share this story with you. He meant a lot to my Dad and our whole family. He was Dad's angel.

*Sincerely,
Jeanne Gantert Auron*
