Diana June Bollinger, a beloved mother, grandmother, sister, aunt, and friend, passed away peacefully on April 3, 2024. Diana was born in Oakes, ND in 1943 and proud to be queen of her hometown. She was known for her kind-hearted nature, sense of humor, and had a love for crossword puzzles. She was a brilliant businesswoman and a really funny lady! Diana lived in St. Louis Park, MN most of her years and was proud of her home and life she had built as a single mom. Diana's greatest joy was her role as a mother to her daughter, Lori, whom she cherished deeply. She was a guiding light in Lori's life, always nurturing and devoted. As a grandmother to Kate and Nick, Diana was the fun grandma, always cooking and playing games with them, creating cherished memories. Diana's sister, Donna, shared a deep bond with her and their connection was a source of joy and support throughout their lives.

Diana's smile, and warm and welcoming demeanor made her a friend to all. Her infectious smile and friendly laugh brightened the lives of those around her. Diana's legacy of love, laughter, and delicious meals will continue to resonate in the hearts of her family and friends. Preceded in death by parents, Adolph and Selma Schauch; son-in-law, John Austin; and brother-in-law, Jack Keiffer. Survived by daughter, Lori; grandchildren, Kate (25) and Nick (21); sister, Donna Keiffer; nephew, John Keiffer and family. Diana battled sickness for a long time and now is resting in peace. Diana and I started 1st Grade together in Oakes, ND and every morning through high school she'd stop at my house and we'd walk to school. We both found our paths led us to the Twin Cities where our friendship never skipped a beat! She NEVER missed calling me on my birthday until the last one. A kind, hardworking gentle giant with a heart of gold is now safe in the arms of Jesus where there is no more suffering, no more pain. RIP good and faithful servant knowing you were so loved. ❤️

“ Hi auntie Diana! I remember you fondly you were always so much fun. I have not spoken to you in sometime, but I will still miss you and remember you from the years when I was growing up especially. I was also sad to see that there was an omission in your obituary about being preceded in death by your brother, my father, Leroy Schlauch. blessings to your daughter and to her family

“ Speaking to my dad today, he told me the news of Diana. I just finished watching the funeral/celebration of life and so nice to see Lori, who I haven’t seen in years! I cried watching this! I remember the bond that Lori and Diana had and how funny and upbeat Diana was! I so wish we hadn’t lost touch, it’s been years! I have the memories though and I will cherish them!

“ Diana was a ray of sunshine at the Plymouth Lowe's for the 10 years I was Store Manager. If I was having a bad day, I knew I could seek her out and a smile and a hug would turn around my day.

Many times, she was obviously in pain, but her positive energy and kindness always shined through. She always asked about my kids. My wife remembers her. I came back to work after the service and showed a coworker her picture, and he remembered Diana from shopping in the store years ago.

Diana truly impacted my life by just being who she was - a warm, kind, genuine person. Rest in peace, my forever friend.

I met Diana in the break room at Lowe's. I had been at a different store so I hadn't met her yet. I don't know what we were talking about, but I remember we were laughing our asses off. I remember her saying where have you been and who are you? That was the start of our friendship. One of the memories that come to mind is her and I went to a party with our coworkers who were way, way younger. Diana was a life of the party. She was laughing and dancing and having a great time. She showed the young ones you can have fun at any age! I know as she aged, her health was deteriorating but she still managed to smile and be cheerful to everyone. And that laugh, I can hear it now! You were a great lady Diana and I'll miss you. Love you, Sharon Reblin.

“ I started at Lowe's the same day Diana did. December 7, 2005. Diana, Tanya and I went to lunch together the first day and were friends right away. We opened the Plymouth store together. She was such a fun lady. Hard working and a joy to be around. The break room was filled with laughter when she was in there. She would call me on my birthday and say, “Hi Laura, it's Diana June!” She would proceed to sing 🎤 Happy Birthday to me. She did this every year! It was so nice to be able to help her. She was so appreciative and I was so happy to help her. I will miss my friend. Rest in Peace dear Diana June. 💕. Laura Nyman

“ My dear friend Diana. We go back a long ways and sometimes we wouldn't talk for quite a while but we always just picked up where we left off like the old friends we were. We actually lived together when I first got out of high school and we had so much fun. I still have the dress I wore as a bridesmaid in her wedding (wish I could still fit into it). My deepest sympathies to Lori, Donna and all of her family. Rest in peace my friend.
