“ In 1969 I transferred from the FBI in Washington, DC to the Minneapolis FBI Division. Dianna Krogman was one of the first to welcome me to the Minneapolis office and it was then that we became fast friends. Not long after we met, Dianna married Bob Hill and she moved close to where I lived, so we started car pooling together. Dianna was always so cheery in the morning and it was always a delight to start the day with her. She was a wonderful hostess. One time she got us together close to Halloween and she made her infamous sloppy joes along with chips and a fabulous onion dip. That evening we binge watched Vincent Price's horror movies. I was there when her eldest son, Timmy (Tim) was born. She was such a wonderful first time mommy and a fabulous mother to her other children Daniel and Jeff. I eventually moved away but Dianna and I kept in touch. Whenever I would make it back to Minnesota I would try to see Dianna. One particular special afternoon at her home, my husband played the bagpipes and then Dianna played her violin. Thank heavens for FaceBook because Dianna would share her family and I could keep up with special events in her and Bob's lives. She loved her grandchildren!!! She shared with me a time when her family got together and went to a fun play area for the weekend. She said she got to sleep in a bunk bed and that was an experience she would never forget but she was with the grandkids and that was what it was all about. I think one of the best highlights of her life was when her great granddaughters were born, beautiful Charlee and precious Laine. Dianna, I will miss your sweet soft laughter but whenever my windchimes blow softly I will know it is you. The picture I have shared was taken at Bob and Dianna's home and it is of myself and my Minneapolis Bureau sisters Pam, Dianna and Joey, Dianna I will always love you to the moon and back. I will see you on the other side.
