“ Dick was a great Musician and will be missed on the music scene, I met Dick the first time in the early 60s when he was playing for Dave Dudley, and prior to that in 1955 when we played in International Falls Mn folks there would ask if we knew Dick, at the time we didn't but were looking forward to meeting their home town Hero who made good in the music business, Yes Dick was always there with that famous smile and a story to tell, But "I'll catch you down the road Dear Friend" We will keep you in our Memories, Red & Flo Johnson
