

Dolores Jane Amundson

October 7, 1926 - March 18, 2021

Amundson, Dolores J. (Olson) Age 94 of St. Louis Park, passed away peacefully on March 18, 2021. Dolores was born on October 7, 1926 on the family farm in Black Brook Township, Wisconsin. She was the daughter of Oscar Olson and Florence Olson (Peterson). After marrying Arthur Amundson in 1946, they moved to Mpls for work. She worked for 30 years as a bookkeeper. In 1951, they bought their first house in St. Louis Park. Dolores was known to place the needs of others before her own. She kept an immaculate house and loved tending to her flowers. Dolores was a charter member of Westwood Lutheran Church, where she was a longtime member of church circles. Dolores loved to dance the polka with her favorite dance partner Art. She cherished family gatherings at the family farm in Wisconsin. She always remembered friends and relatives with cards. Dolores enjoyed baking and gifting nut breads and chocolate chip cookies. Her grandson Chris always had cookies to take back to college. Dolores also like to make quilts for the church and to embroider. Survived by children, Bruce Amundson and Denise Daly (Brian); grandson, Christopher Daly (Lisa); great-granddaughter, Kiera Daly; also survived by brothers, Oscar Olson Jr. and Duane Olson. Preceded in death by parents, Oscar and Florence Olson, brother, Eugene Robinson, sisters, Lillian Blanchard, Mary Ann Fitzer and Donna Mae Getschel. A special thanks to all of the caring staff at Wealshire of Bloomington. Private family burial. Washburn-McReavy.com Edina Chapel 952-920-3996
