In Loving Memory of Dolores Lorraine Bancroft

April 4, 1929 - May 26, 2026

With profound sadness and endless love, we announce the passing of Dolores Lorraine Bancroft on May 26, 2026, at the age of 97.

Dolores lived a life centered on family, and unwavering devotion to those she loved. She was the proud mother of four wonderful sons-Tom,(Sandy) Ed, (Patty) George,(Kris) and Wayne(Lisa)-whom she raised with strength, determination, and unconditional love. She was preceded in death by her beloved husband, Poncho, with whom she shared 73 beautiful years of marriage, as well as her sons Tom and George.

Nothing brought Dolores more joy than her family. She cherished her many grandchildren and great-grandchildren, showering them with love, wisdom, unforgettable memories, and candy! Her family was her greatest treasure.

Known for her feisty spirit, quick wit, and strong will, Dolores remained fiercely independent and full of life until the very end. Her strength, resilience, and love will continue to live on through the generations she helped shape.

Though our hearts are heavy with loss, we take comfort in knowing that she is reunited with those who went before her. She will be deeply missed, forever loved, and always remembered.

“Poncho and Delorse where like parents to me.. They were so good to me, I am so Grateful that I had them, for so many years.. spent many afternoons on the back of Delorses bike, in the little kid seat, going to pick up groceries for the days meals, and numerous walks to stop at McDonalds for an ice cream cone at the end of our walk.. planted many gardens in the summer with her.. and licked many beater from her mixer, when she made frosting for cinnamon rolls... wiped many dishes with her, and I swear she made “The Best Macaroni and Cheese”. No one could make it like her.. it was perfect and creamy every-time.. many hours eating Doritos and drinking a bottle of coke in Wayne’s room when he was gone... I’m Pretty sure that I spent more time at Poncho and Delores’s house than I did at my own...Learned so much from them both. My heart is saddened, but I am confident that she is finally back in the arms of Poncho..lots of love to you both.. Thank You for all the amazing years we spent together!!!
