

Dolores Mabel Shellum

June 18, 1933 - June 28, 2025

Dolores Mabel Shellum, passed away unexpectedly June 28, 2025 shortly after celebrating her 92nd birthday - a life rich with love, laughter, and unforgettable memories. Dolores was born June 18, 1933 in Minneapolis, MN to Edith and Jess Gomez.

Proceeded in death by her parents, husband Rudy Shellum, daughter JoAnn Bartz & brother-in-law Kenneth Shellum. She is survived by her sister Mona Robinson, sister-in-law Barbara Shellum, daughters Cathleen (Alan) Jorgensen and Mary Sedlachek. Six Grandchildren, nine great-grandchildren, one great-great grandchild and one on the way. Nieces, nephews and many other family and friends.

She had a love for collecting cookbooks and exploring new coffee creamers. She immersed herself in romance novels and puzzle books, finding joy in stories and challenges that sparked her bright spirit. The casino was not just a place to her; it was her sanctuary. Her weekly pilgrimage where she eagerly gather giveaways that she shared with her family and friends.

Her loyalty as a long-standing member of the Mayflower society was a testament to her pride in her heritage. Her voice carried the proud history of her ancestors journey across the Atlantic on the Mayflower. A story she held close to her heart and loved to share with anyone willing to listen.

She will be greatly missed, but her legacy of love strength and stories will live on forever.
