

Dominica Torralba

May 31, 2010

Torralba, Dominica Hernandez Life everlasting became a reality for her when she entered the Kingdom of Heaven on Saturday, May 29, 2010 at 12:20 PM. Her gorgeous spot thereat has been reserved and preserved for her due to her firm belief in Jesus Christ as our Lord and Savior and that God died on the cross in salvation of all our sins. "Dominic", as she is fondly called, carried out and followed the will of God with all her zest and might. She was born in the Philippines 86 summers ago and immigrated to the U.S. in 1984 after 44 years of long and faithful service to the Philippine Government as an educator where she rose from the ranks to become Superintendent of Schools. She earned a Ph.D. in Education while raising seven children, caring for a husband debilitated by a severe stroke and attending to her important duties and responsibilities as school administrator. Blessed by God with a beautiful voice, she was a soprano who earned praises and admiration and at the same time brought joy and happiness to people. Predeceased by husband, Amado and son, Ike. She will surely be missed here on earth by everyone who came into her life. Survived by brothers, Quintin, Juan and Conrad; sisters, Beny, Dory, Auring and Norma; children, Roger (Minia), Gabby (Nora), (Linda), Irma (Sonny), Frank (Fe), Mike (Kathy), Jonathan (Rowena) and loving grandchildren. Friends and family will have an audience with her Tuesday, June 1, 2010 from 5 to 10 PM at Washburn- McReavy in Bloomington, Minnesota. She will move to her new and permanent address here on earth at historic Lakewood Cemetery in Minneapolis on June 2, 2010 wherefore our send off will take place in St. Bonaventure Church, 901 E. 90th St., Bloomington, Minnesota at 10 AM where a special Mass in her honor will be celebrated at 11 AM. Washburn-McReavy Werness Brothers Chapel 2300 W
