“Dad, we will truly miss your great humor. Now you are with Matt. If you teach him how to play guitar he will teach you how to juggle. We will see you both again. Until then, you are in our hearts forever.

“Last time I was over I was rifling through Don's old time country cd collection, listening to them and Don would tell me the particular singer's story. It was pretty cool. I always enjoyed talking college hoops with Don too. He was a great March Madness mind! I will miss youDon!
