“ My brother Don Pickering and I were close childhood friends of Don Grant. Starting in the 6th grade, the two Donnies were classmates at Lake Johanna elementary school and Murray high school; I was a year behind. I have compiled a couple of pages (too large for this format)of stories amd memories of our growing up together which I would love to share with Don's family.
Following the Korean War Don Pickering and Don Grant went into business together: Donnies' 66.
