

Donald B. Gurley

November 14, 2012

Gurley, Donald (Bruce) of Fridley, marched off to be with the Lord on 11-14-12 at the age of 51. He is survived by his devoted wife, Kelly and children, Keemar Van Buren, Delano (Amandia) Gurley, Iyanna Gurley, Brittany Gurley, Kumarri Gurley and Donald Gurley II; mother, Christine Gurley; 2 brothers, 4 sisters and 6 grandchildren and a large extended family of aunts, uncles, cousins, nieces and nephews. Bruce grew up on the north side of Minneapolis and was a graduate of North High. Bruce was also an early director of the Leo Johnson Drum Corp working with countless kids and performing around the Twin Cities. "Mr. Bruce" was also a dedicated member of the Brooklyn Park Lions Club and along with their support he helped create and direct the Brooklyn Park Lions Drum and Bugle Corp. Bruce loved working with young people in the community and performing with the group at the Lions International Parade and at many parades throughout the region. His caring nature and compassionate heart were an example to all who knew him. We can truly say we have grown better ourselves for having known him. Services will be held Noon Saturday, November 24th at the New Salem Missionary Baptist Church at 2507 Bryant Ave N. Visitation 1 hour before the service at the church. Memorials are preferred to the Wells Fargo - Bruce Gurley Memorial Fund. www.Washburn-McReavy.com Swanson Chapel 612-529-9691
