“ I have so many memories of Don. We were not only classmates, but good friends. Don loved to sing, dance and have great conversations. I remember him in sports - which he excelled in. It seemed that no matter when I saw Don, it was like yesterday. I remember when I came home from Guatemala the first time, I was in the Cities. Don asked me to go to eat with him. I had said, "please, not a fancy place". He said that it was fine no matter where we ate, but "just don't sit on the table". (I didn't) I will miss him. I just wish I could be there for the Mass. I surely will be in prayer here.
peace,
