

Donald Kise

April 2, 2019

Kise, Donald,

a classic Norwegian, of Shoreview, died at age 92 of old age and pneumonia. He worked in the west coast shipyards at age 16 during World War II. Served in the Navy. Achieved goal of being a pilot at age 72, and acquiring his own airplane.

Member of Zuhrah Horsemen in the sixties. Homebuilder extraordinaire, building many homes, as co-owner of Kise Construction. Final project was building his retirement lake home on Lower Whitefish. Preceded in death by wife, Joanne Hoel; parents, Vera and Axel Kise; and brother, Robert. Survived by children, Kris (Mark) MacDonald, Scott (Ruth), Eric (Sue); grandchildren, Karl, Tessa, Allison, Cody, Anika; and great-grandchildren. Private interment.

www.Washburn-McReavy.com

Hillside Chapel 612-781-1999