“ I found that Susan B. dollar coin we marked and played constantly for that you won back from Uncle Alec. Thought it's rightful place was back with him. I remember there were not too many smiles at the end but when you saw Silas for the first time I hadn't seen a smile and laugh like that for a long time. The kids sure loved you. Miss you Dad. Karen

“ Aunt Jennie, My memories are too many to pick just one or two. As rough the exterior was sometimes there was a heart of gold beneath it that was not to be denied. He held a special place in my heart as he was there to listen when I needed someone special to talk to although in the recent years I regret I never found the time to be with him or listen to him. I know when he joined his family up ther the first thing said is "where are the cards"

“ Dear Markow Family, You are in my thoughts and prayers. I remember when Don lived at Presbyterian Homes of North Oaks and he would stop to visit with me nearly every evening as I worked at the front desk. I too always enjoyed his sense of humor and great stories. I never forgot him.

“ There are too many good times to write about with Uncle Don and his family. But the memories are of times at the house on Jefferson, Sundays at Grandma & Grandpa's, the lake, hunting, and of course the TV shop. And what kid doesn't remember trying to get his cigar boxes to keep stuff in? They were the coolest things. He will be missed as are Bruce, my parents, and all the aunts and uncles that preceded him. He was a very kind man who will be missed. My thoughts, prayers, and love to Aunt Jennie, Karen & Paul, Rich & Katie, Nate and Theresa and all of their kids. Jim Dupay
