“ So many great memories and so much I want to say here.

Don was such a wonderful, caring, kind, generous and funny man. Always, always so positive with that infectious personality and laugh... I loved him, as well as many others, as he was full of love. Don lived life to the fullest... Don touched my heart, my spirit...When I became new to choir he took me "under his wing" right away. I appreciated him wanting to chat one on one, over a drink and then introduced me to other choir members. Don also extended his home and great cooking skills a few times along with sharing that great river view on the 4th of July one year...What a treat!

A very special man will be missed..But he's in heaven..Singing and laughing, I'm sure.

Peace and love to all who knew him and his family, whom he adored.

“ Don was a wonderful, generous, welcoming, and kind human being who spoke very lovingly about his family. He seemed to like to watch over people and help them feel connected while also being of service to others whenever he could. When I was new to church choir, he connected me to others through social events, his beautiful voice, car rides, and help with whatever I needed. "The Don!" You were a great man to many and will be missed.
